Heavy Combination Truck Driver Training

Course Details

This course is for drivers who wish to upgrade their driving skills from Medium or Heavy Rigid to a Semi-Trailer. Call Ideal now to see which course best suits your driving needs.

Basic Overview of Heavy Combo vehicle type

Heavy rigid and trailer of more than 9 T GVM or prime-mover & semi-trailer. Ideal's comprehensive driver training includes many must-know driving skills that your employer will expect you to have.

Basic requirements

Queensland Transport requires that the student has held a Medium Rigid or Heavy Rigid licence for a period of one year (1 year).

How it works

Ideal Driving School conducts one hour lessons and training is competency based. Once the student is competent with their Heavy combination driver licence training a practical driving test with Queensland Transport can be booked. The student will complete the test in the same training vehicle with the Queensland Transport examiner.

Lesson Times

Ideal Driving School conducts lessons Monday-Friday 7am-5pm and also on Saturdays from 7am. All Saturday lessons are required to be pre-paid. We suggest that students do one lesson per week or even a two hour block, depending on their availability and budget.

Lessons required to attain a DOT licence.

On average the number of lessons for a person upgrading from a Medium Rigid to a Heavy Combination is approximately 8-10 one hour lessons.

Upgrading from a Heavy Rigid Combination to Heavy Combination is around 5 one hour lessons. Additionally there is the hire of the truck for one hour whilst undertaking the Queensland Transport test.
